I awoke here then
There walking to its end
Bracing for a hill
Paring two apples
Thinking lost hope where
Electronic squeezed

It's not like wa-
Tching a fly die with one
Leg waving at you
Since it's not a
Hat the shoes dress the pants under
Graying wet sky (eez)

A nap is a mat
Where sun shine clouds open (ing)
Curled in blankets
The buildings don't
Skew to angles ninety nine
Tears along the sway

Mariel Heming
Way out behind the mountain
Peers to you and me
Notice not the melt
Ing ice cream finger dripping
Communal shower

Catch'd toes hoof sell
Purple lips sunset edgy
Kicking the table
Forget once some face
Forward John, backs up sweating
Moms'a drug dealer

Sponge (s) placard worn
Glass reflect'd rain spray rhetor-
Orical bends out
Cats. The only soap
Opera they have, is one
(I) pinned on them
